SATTERFIELD & PONTIKES CONSTRUCTION SELECTS AUDIE TARPLEY AS NATIONAL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

DALLAS, TEXAS (March 21, 2011) – Satterfield & Pontikes Construction, Inc. (S&P) recently selected Aubrey “Audie” Tarpley to serve as National Business Development Manager. His responsibilities at S&P will include identifying and assessing opportunities in new geographic areas and market sectors, establishing and managing client relationships, increasing S&P brand awareness, and developing, expanding and diversifying S&P’s project base.

With more than 30 years of experience managing progressively more complex development and construction projects, Tarpley brings extensive expertise in the expansion of companies into new markets. His strong background includes business development, preconstruction, and design management, with a particular focus on Design/Build delivery of construction services. Prior to joining S&P, Tarpley most recently served as National Construction Manager for a major window covering company in Dallas and was responsible for all company installations throughout the United States.

Tarpley has been active in the real estate industry as a member of The National Association of Industrial and Office Properties and as a past chair of the Industrial Development Forum. He is also a member of the International Council of Shopping Centers.

Tarpley attended the Georgia Institute of Technology, where he majored in Construction Management and played football for Coach Pepper Rodgers. Tarpley and wife Karen have two sons in college; Matt is a student at the University of Mississippi and A.J. attends Stanford University. Tarpley has served on several boards, including civic organizations and youth sports associations. He is based at S&P’s office on N. Beltline Road in Irving.
